

AL-BARKAAT PUBLIC SCHOOL (+2)

(Affiliated to CBSE, Affiliation No.2130776)

SUMMER

CREATE, IMAGINE, DISCOVER

Dear Parents and Students,

- 1. Write in neat and legible handwriting. Presentation matters your hard work should be easy to read and pleasing to the eyes.
- Decorate your work beautifully. Use borders, headings, and light colors to make your pages attractive. Keep it neat and avoid over-decorating.
- 3. Show your creativity. You may include drawings, stickers, or charts related to the topic. Make it uniquely yours!
- 4. Seek guidance from your parents, especially when you're stuck or unsure. Their suggestions can help you think better.
- 5. Do the work independently. It's okay to make mistakes what matters is that the effort is your own.
- 6. Stay organized. Use a folder or file to keep your work safe and in order.
- 7. Revise what you've done. Check for spelling, punctuation, and neatness before submitting.
- 8. Complete your work regularly. Don't wait for the last week a little every day makes it fun and stress free!

As the holiday season approaches, it's time to sprinkle a little magic into your holiday homework!

Think of this as your chance to explore, create, and let your imagination run wild. Whether it's crafting a story, designing a project, or diving into a new book, make it fun and exciting!

Remember, the goal is to learn and enjoy.

To do;

"Create a working model showcasing the different parts of speech.

Be creative! Use

visual aids, diagrams, or interactive elements to

We are thrilled to announce that your hard work, creativity, and innovation will be on full display at the upcoming School Exhibition!

This is your moment to shine and proudly present your model to parents, teachers, and fellow students.

Your model is not just a project—it's a reflection of your imagination, effort, and understanding. Be confident, be clear, and most importantly, enjoy the experience of sharing your ideas with others.

sun block hofte Summez Let your model speak for your passion, and let your voice represent the future!

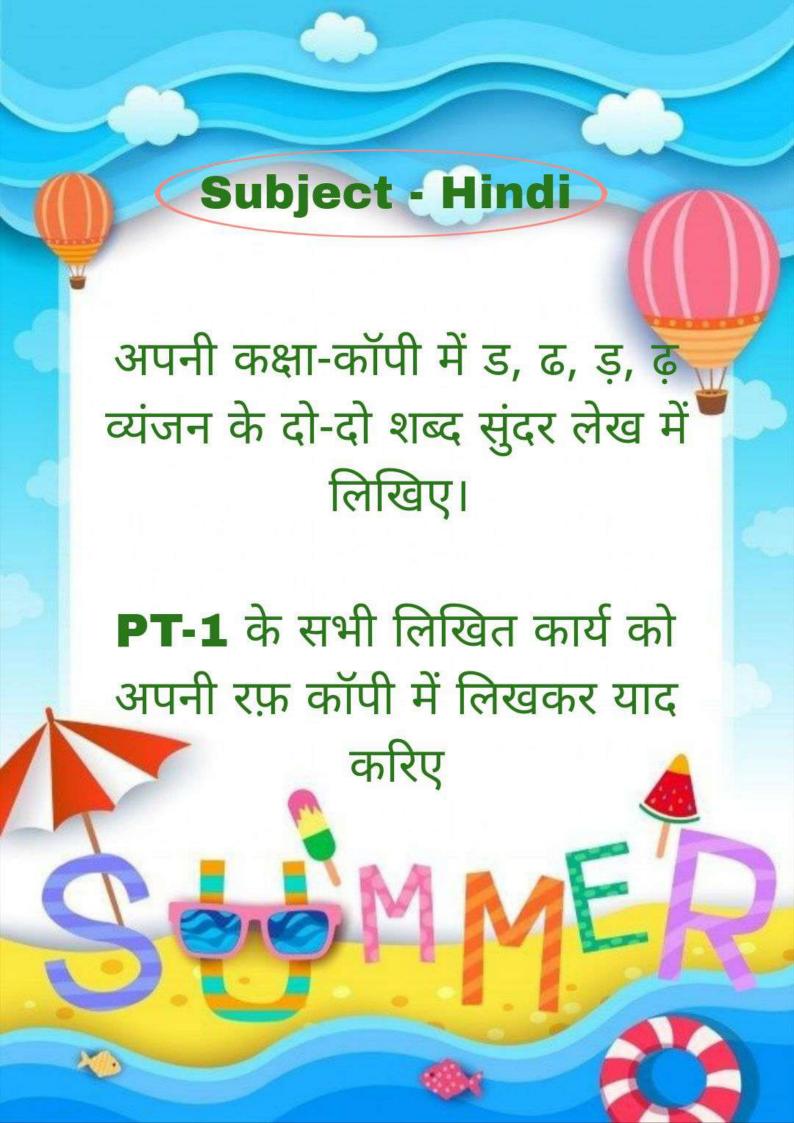

Topics for the models are as follows:-

- Roll.no. 1 to 10 Nouns Common and Proper.
- Roll.no. 11 to 20 This and That.
- Roll.no. 21 to 30 Singular and Plural.
- Roll.no. 31 to 40- Alphabetical Order.
- Roll.no. 41 to 50 Prepositions (In, On, Under)

Points to remember

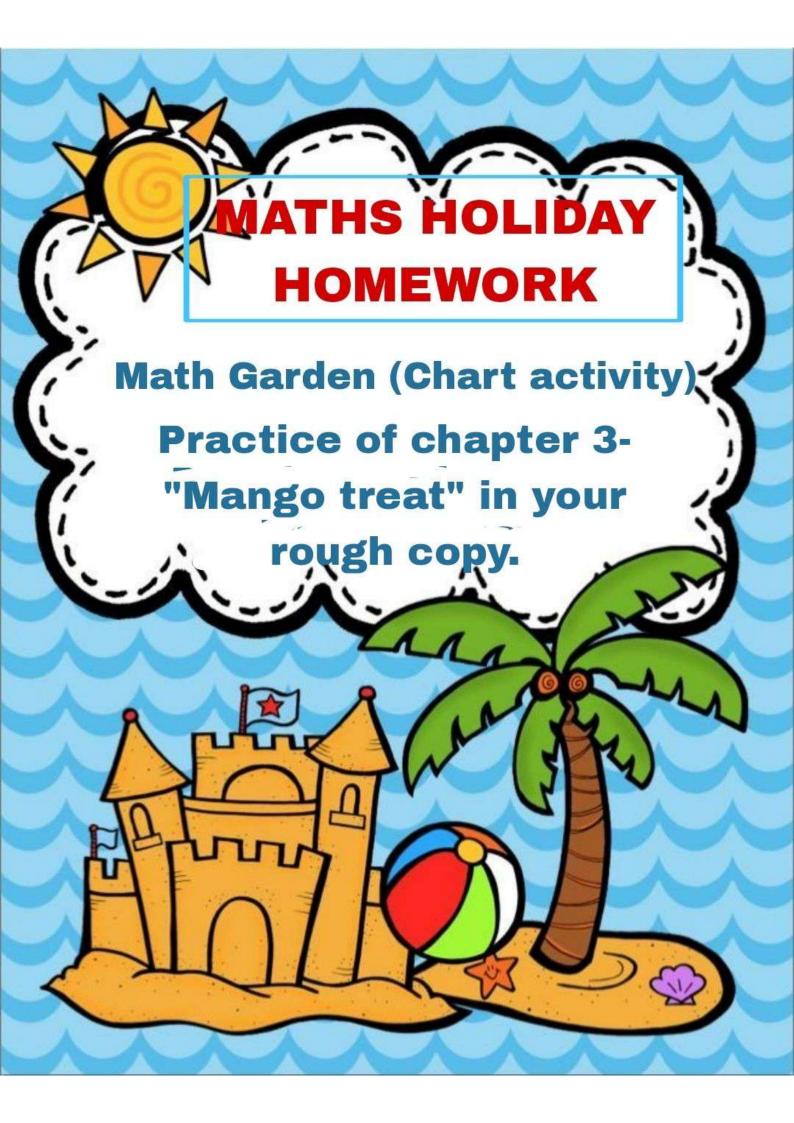

- 1. Project/Model and Homework Submission: The project or model will be submitted on 17th of July. (No extension will be given)
- 2. Reference Video: A video will be shared with you all to guide for the project or assignment.
- 3. Marks Allocation: Marks will be allocated when students submit their model. The best models will hnn be displayed in English exhibition.
- 4. Prize for Best Holiday Homework: The best English model will be awarded a prize.
- 5. Vocabulary Words: Students are expected to learn vocabulary words, possibly with the requirement to write them twice in their scrapbook.

Dear Parents and Students,

- 1. Submit your scrapbook by 5th of July without fail.
- 2.Models and projects must be submitted as instructed by the subject teacher.
- 3.Marks for these submissions will be included in the exam.

4. Each homework carries 5 marks.

